---------------------	----------------

NOTES ON ADDITIONAL FEES

Housing Bond (married students): A $400 bond payment in cash is required by all new students who rent married students accommodation. A house inspection is required at the commencement and conclusion of the tenancy, as well as twice per year, and the bond may be used to cover full or part of the costs of damage incurred during the tenancy. The bond less cost of any repairs will be reimbursed only after the house is inspected and keys returned to the Property Manager.

Dorm Room Deposit

Single students who wish to get a room in the dormitories available on campus will need to fill an application form from the DOSS office and pay a $100 room deposit. A room inspection is required at the commencement and conclusion of the semester, and the deposit may be used to cover full or part of the costs of damage incurred during your stay. The deposit less cost of any repairs will be reimbursed only after the room is inspected and keys returned to the DOSS office.

Student Study Permit (Overseas students only). Please note that this fee is for the main applicant only. Any additional member of the family will incur a cost of $210 per year.

Renewal of air tickets. It is the sole responsibility of the traveling student to make sure that they have sufficient money to pay for the renewal of their traveling ticket.

Campus Contribution (for day students only). As day students will not be required to be involved in any Workline, they are charged a campus contribution fee of $105 per semester.

Non-Pacific Island Students. An additional $250 per semester is charged to any student who comes from outside the Pacific Island region including PNG students.
